

AGREEMENT TO PARTICIPATE IN STERN2STEM MAVEN EDUCATIONAL GAME

OVERVIEW: MAVEN is an educational game that has been developed under the Stern2STEM project which is being conducted by Old Dominion University and is funded by the Office of Naval Research under grant 11899718: From Stern to STEM: A pilot program for the recruitment and education of Veterans.

PURPOSE: The purpose of gathering information through this game is to assess and improve the game. Areas for improvement include but are not limited to player perception, usability, and educational effectiveness.

PARTICIPATION: You will be asked to play through a series of interactive games interspersed with instructional videos and assessments. The time commitment varies widely on a participant by participant basis. Players participate of their own volition and may stop playing the game at any time.

RISKS OF PARTICIPATION: The risks of playing the game are no greater than any risk that a participant could expect to encounter in their daily lives.

BENEFITS OF PARTICIPATION: Players should gain a better understanding of Precalculus topics as they play the game.

VOLUNTARY PARTICIPATION: Your participation is completely voluntary. You may stop playing the game at any time.

PRIVACY: Your information will be protected and while we are collecting information, there is no collection of Personally Identifiable Information.

FURTHER INFORMATION: If you have any questions or require any further information, please contact the project at stern2stem@gmail.com or visit our website at stern2stem.org.

CONSENT: By checking the box to indicate your consent and registering for an account, you denote your consent to these terms including having non-personally identifiable data about you and your gameplay collected.
